Privacy Notice

At Amianto we take the protection, privacy, confidentiality and security of your personal data very seriously. This Privacy Notice will inform you as to how we look after your personal data that we collect when we provide specialist asbestos removal and disposal services to you. You will also find information about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

This notice sets out our commitment to protecting personal data and is designed to comply with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 with effect from 25th May 2018.

What personal data will we collect about you?

We will collect basic contact details for example first name, forename, address, postcode and telephone number.

Lawful basis for processing your personal information

The lawful basis for which we will process your data are:

We will process under the contractual and legitimate interests condition or that of a third-party when carrying out our core functions of removal of Asbestos and Asbestos waste management.

You can download a copy of the Privacy Notice here.

This Privacy Notice is provided in a layered format so you can click through to the specific areas set out below.

1. Who we are and the purpose of this Privacy Notice
2. Changes to the privacy policy and your duty to inform us of changes
3. How is your personal data collected?
4. If you fail to provide personal data
5. Changes of purpose
6. Disclosures of your personal data

7. International transfers
8. Data Security
9. Data Retention
10. Your Legal Rights
11. Automated decision making
12. Contact details

Who we are and the purpose of this Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice aims to give you information on how Amianto collects and processes your personal data.

We obtain your personal data in order to provide specialist asbestos removal and disposal services for members of the public, commercial and public sector organisations.

Amianto is a controller and responsible for your personal data (for simplicity throughout this notice “we”, “us” or “our” means Amianto in this Privacy Notice).

Amianto is part of the Sovini Group which is made up of different legal entities, details of which can be found here: https://sovini.co.uk/

Back to top

Changes to the Privacy Notice and your duty to inform us of changes

We keep our Privacy Notice under regular review. This version was last updated in November 2026. Historic versions can be obtained by contacting us.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

Back to top

How is your personal data collected?

Your personal information is collected when we receive emails and phone calls from you for the purpose of asbestos removal and disposal services.

Back to top

If you fail to provide personal data

Where you fail to supply your personal information to us we may not be able to provide our services of asbestos removal and disposal services.

Back to top

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us using the detail set out below.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

Back to top

Disclosures of your personal data

We may share your personal data with the following categories of recipients;

- Health service providers - Employee Training Records. Processing of Employee medical records.
- Other companies within the Sovini Group - to provide asbestos removal services to OVH and PCHA tenants, and to provide Business intelligence.
- General public – to provide asbestos removal services.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Back to top

International transfers

Amianto may occasionally process your personal information overseas this will be for the storage of data in systems that are cloud based, cloud adoption is now around 90 % in the UK.

When processing data in this way Amianto have to ensure that cloud services are compliant and that systems and applications are adhering to current UK General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018.

We will not share your information with countries or organisations who are outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) unless to a country or an international organisation that has an appropriate “adequacy decision”; such countries include: Andorra, Argentina, Canada, the Faroe Islands, Guernsey, Israel, the Isle of Man, Japan, Jersey, New Zealand, Switzerland and Uruguay. Transfers are also allowed where “appropriate safeguards” have been put in place.

Back to top

Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Back to top

Data retention

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

Back to top

Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. Please click on the links below to find out more about these rights:

"Request access" to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

"Request correction" of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

"Request erasure" of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

"Object to processing" of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

"Request restriction of processing" of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- If you want us to establish the data's accuracy.
- Where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it.
- Where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.
- You have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

"Request the transfer" of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

"Withdraw consent at any time" where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

"Right to raise a complaint" about the handling of your personal data if you believe there has been an infringement of UK GDPR or data protection legislation. An acknowledgement of receipt will be provided within 30 days.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact our Data Protection Officer – Data Protection People.

Email address: dpenquiries@sovini.co.uk
Postal address: Amianto, PO Box 891, Orpington, BR6 1LY.
Telephone number: 0333 7331200

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we could refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it could take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

Back to top

Automated decision making

We do not make automated decisions about you.

Back to top

Contact details

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this Privacy Notice. If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact the DPO using the details set out below:

DPO: Data Protection People
Email address: dpenquiries@sovini.co.uk
Postal address: Amianto, PO Box 891. Orpington, BR6 1LY.
Telephone number: 0333 7331200

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commission (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the Information Commission so please contact us in the first instance.

Back to top